

A spiral-bound notebook with a light beige, textured cover. The metal spiral binding is visible on the left side. The text is centered on the cover.

CTRE RA Policies

June 2, 2000

Student Employment: A Balancing Act for All of Us

- Investment in learning
- Need for graduates
- Management styles and availability
- Other student commitments/interests (got another life?)
- Project needs
- Grunt work vs. challenge
- Student interests
- Student aptitudes
- Work habits
- Work atmosphere
- Timing

Student Policy Resources

- CE Grad Student Guide
- Grad College Graduate Handbook
- Grad Student Forms (online)
- Other CTRE, Transportation, CCE or CRP policies

CCE Grad Student Guide

- <http://www.cce.iastate.edu/students/grad/handbook/>
- Interesting facts (only a PART of the handbook):
 - “IT IS THE STUDENT'S RESPONSIBILITY TO SEE THAT ALL POLICIES, DEADLINES AND REQUIREMENTS ARE MET.”
 - “students who have research assistant appointments are expected to complete the thesis option”
 - General Prerequisites: Calculus, differential equations, programming, statistics, chemistry, geology, physics, statics, materials, fluids, surveying, soils, hydrology, concrete/pavements, highway design
 - Planning Prerequisites (for students w/o CE undergraduate degree): up to POS committee
 - Minimum 22 credits (14 at 500 level) of formal courses (e.g., 7 courses +seminar or 6+stat 401) for thesis option
 - Minimum 28 credits (16 at 500 level) of courses (e.g., 9 courses+seminar or 8+stat 401) for non-thesis option
 - Core courses: CE 550, CE 553 (unless no CE BS degree and Planning emphasis)
 - CE 551 is recommended for general and planning oriented students

CCE Grad Student Guide

- Interesting facts (only a PART of the handbook, cont.):
 - Select POS committee in first semester
 - English certificate prior to competing 12 credits
 - Minimum grade counted for credit is C
 - Any F (or incomplete that turns into an F) means no degree
 - “the final examination is comprehensive, a portion will be devoted to questions concerning courses”
 - complete copy of the thesis to POS Committee two weeks prior to final examination
 - See table 3 for timing of requirements
 - “Graduate Students are eligible and are encouraged to apply for travel mini-grants from the Graduate College.”

Pubs from Grad College

- <http://www.grad-college.iastate.edu/publications/publications.html>

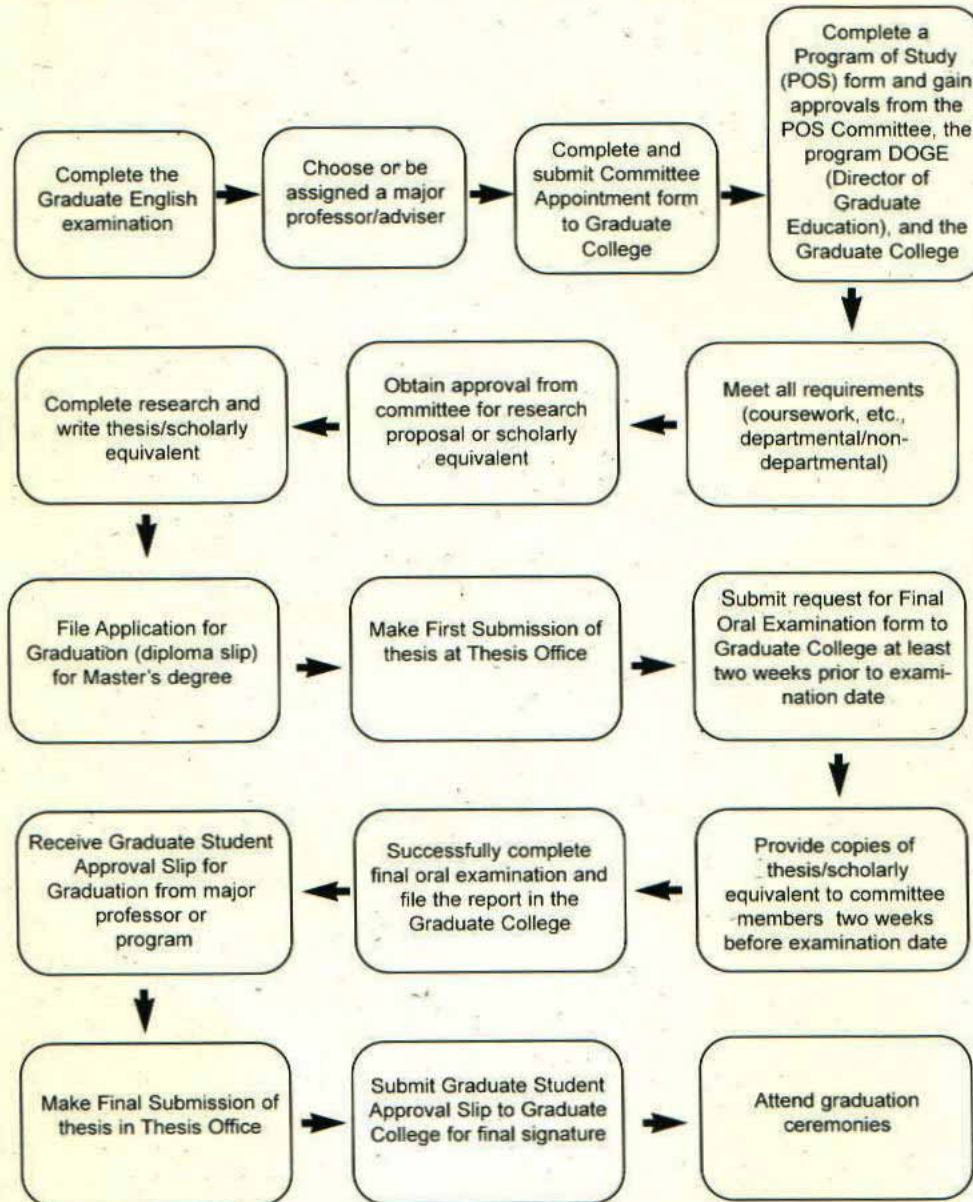

GRADUATE PUBLICATIONS

The following is a list of useful graduate publications which we provide on our website for your ease of use.

- Graduate Bulletin - general details on the degrees, credit hours, grade average, and other requirements for various degrees
- Graduate Handbook - a complete guide to the Graduate College at Iowa State University
- Graduate Handbook Addendum - a downloadable addendum to the 1998/99 Graduate College Handbook (updated 3/00)
- Teaching Assistant Handbook - a guide for TAs that provides information about assistantships, teaching classes, and academic resources
- Graduate Thesis Manual - guidelines and tips for graduate thesis writing, documentation, and submittal

Procedures for Earning a Master's Degree at Iowa State University

Graduate Handbook

- Interesting Facts:
 - Early selection of a major professor, appointment of a POS committee, and development of a program of study are imperative.
 - Minimum grade counted for credit is C
 - Any F (or incomplete that turns into an F) means no degree
 - POS form to be submitted as early as the second semester of graduate study but no later than the term before final oral examination.
 - Chapter 7 includes:
 - Major Professor (Chair) Responsibilities
 - POS Committee Member Responsibilities
 - Student Responsibilities