Author Agreement Regarding Clearances and Copyright

The submitting/corresponding author must have concurrence from coauthors before submitting an abstract (and any related materials such as a presentation and/or poster, which may be submitted in the future) for publication by InTrans, and all contributions to the work must be properly acknowledged.

The author(s) is(are) responsible for securing necessary clearances and written permissions for presentation or publication from any contracting or supervisory agencies involved in the research.

If an abstract (or related submitted material) accepted for publication contains previously copyrighted material, the author(s) is/are responsible for obtaining written permission from the copyright holder(s).

ISU intends to assert copyright rights only to publish and distribute submitted abstracts (and related submitted material) in an electronic symposium program and on the Web as a symposium proceedings. All copies will contain a copyright notice in the name of ISU and include credits referencing the author(s). In addition, ISU is authorized to grant permission for others to copy abstracts (and related submitted material) in whole or in part for nonprofit classroom educational purposes. Other requests for permission to copy will be directed to the author(s).

All rights, title, and interest, including copyright, in the submitted abstract (and related submitted material) are owned by and originally made by the author(s), and use of these materials by InTrans as described above does not infringe on any existing copyright.
