

ADDITIONAL RESOURCES FOR DRIVER EDUCATION INSTRUCTORS TO ADDRESS RISKY BEHAVIOR

Additional Information Sources

NC Vision Zero Initiative.

<https://ncvisionzero.org/>

We Will Not Be Silent: How to Advocate for Safety When Someone is Driving Dangerously. NC Vision Zero Initiative.

<https://ncvisionzero.org/speak-up-if-someone-is-unsafe-be-a-peach/>

How to Talk to Teens about Distracted Driving. Scott Gottlieb, Injury Law Attorney (Note: based in New York).

<https://www.scottgottlielaw.com/talk-to-teens-about-distracted-driving/index.html>

Alive at 25 4-Hour Driver Safety Training. National Safety Council Course.

<https://www.nsc.org/road-safety/services/state-programs/atlanta/alive25>

This course teaches drivers under 25 to make safe driving decisions.

Center for the Study of Young Drivers.

<https://www.csyd.unc.edu/>

Human Factors Safety Laboratory. University of Minnesota.

<https://hfsl.umn.edu/>

How to Stay in Control of your Emotions while Driving. GEICO Insurance.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dzIBCPdeA2g&t=9s>

This is a short video showing how the field of vision for a driver narrows significantly when emotions are high. It is better to pull over and calm down before continuing the journey.